

Curriculum Vitae

Hyun Bo Sim

421 E Graves Ave Apt B, Monterey Park, CA 91755
(909)644-6324
h.b.sim@outlook.com

Education

University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK.
Ph.D. New Testament and Christian Origins (In progress)
Supervisor: Dr. Paul Foster

Talbot School of Theology, La Mirada, CA
Master of Theology, New Testament – May 2018

- Graduated with the Highest Honor
- Th.M. Thesis Title: The Formation of God's people: The Application of Social Identity Theory to the Gospel of Matthew Supervised by Dr. Michael Wilkins and Dr. Joseph Hellerman (received The Zondervan Outstanding Master's Thesis Award)

Moody Theological Seminary, Chicago, IL
Master of Divinity, Pastoral Studies – May 2016

- Graduated with the High Honor

California State University, Fullerton, Fullerton, CA
Bachelor of Art, English – May 2012

- Summa Cum Laude
-

Teaching Experiences

Part-time faculty, Bethesda University, Anaheim, CA (2019- current)

- Church Growth (CG 462)
- Introduction to Christianity (TH 101)
- Introduction to the Bible (BS 200)
- Christian Ethics (GH 250)
- New Testament Exegesis (BS 350)

Part-time faculty, Presbyterian Theological Seminary in America, Anaheim, CA (Spring 2019-Spring 2020)

- General Epistles (NT116)
- Biblical Interpretation (B.Th 302)

Teaching Staff, Cru Institute of Biblical Studies (2019-current)

- Bible Study Methods
-

Professional Experiences

Director of Distance Learning Education Program

Bethesda University, Anaheim, CA (Fall, 2020 – Current)

- Managing Online Class (Populi LMS) for helping online class instructors and online students.
- Providing training on online class procedures for instructors and students
- Providing meaningful assessment of institutional and departmental initiatives
- Develops the Distance Education faculty and Student’s manual and provides to online class instructors and students each semester.
- Accreditation- Collaboration with the faculty provides leadership in the maintenance of TRACS accreditation and Serve as Committees as assigned.

Teaching Assistance to Dr. Victor Rhee, Talbot School of Theology – La Mirada, CA (Spring, 2018)

- Supervised Teaching Experience
 - “Theology and Practice of Johannine Epistles” (Taught one class session of Theology & Practice of General Epistles TNT 825 under the supervision of Dr. Victor Rhee, Spring 2018)
 - “Introduction to Johannine Epistles” (Taught one class session of TTBE 520 New Testament Survey under the supervision of Dr. Alan D. Hultberg, Spring 2017)
 - “How to Interpret Parables” (Taught one class session of TTBE 517 Hermeneutics and Bible Study Methods under the supervision of Dr. Alan D. Hultberg, Spring 2017)

Campus Minister with the Soon Ministry, an Ethnic Ministry of Cru (Full Time: Fall 2013-Spring 2014; Volunteer: Fall 2014- Current)

- Event Team
 - Plan and Execute various retreats and conferences.
 - Setup and manage online registration systems.
 - Setup and maintain conference related websites.

Writing Center Student Tutor, California State University, Fullerton, CA (Fall 2011- Spring 2012)

Presentations

- “Rewriting the Jewish Origin Story in John.” SBL, 2021 Annual Meeting, San Antonio, TX.
- “Matthew 15:21-28: A story of Exclusion? A case study of Exorcism and the Gentile Mission in the Gospel of Matthew.” Evangelical Theological Society, 2019 Annual Meeting, San Diego, CA.

Awards/Grants/Scholarships

- The Zondervan Outstanding Master’s Thesis Award (Spring 2018)
Th.M. Thesis Title: The Formation of God’s people: The Application of Social Identity Theory to the Gospel of Matthew Supervised by Dr. Michael Wilkins and Dr. Joseph Hellerman.

- Talbot Th.M. Scholarship (Fall 2016, Fall 2017)
The scholarship recognizes Talbot Th.M. students who exhibit an excellent quality of academic work, a heart for ministry, and prospects for future study.
- Moody Timothy Scholarship (2013-2016)
- HanSaRang scholarship (2011)
The scholarship recognizes college students who have shown excellent academic achievement and exemplary dedication to the Church and the advancement of the Gospel.
- Youngnak Scholarship (2011)
The scholarship recognizes Christian Korean American students who have shown leadership skills in community and on campus.
- Kimberly Anne Holloway Scholarship (2011)
The scholarship recognizes students for academic excellence and assist the winner to complete a baccalaureate degree in English, comparative literature or linguistics.

Language Proficiency

- Advanced Biblical Greek (18 credit units)
- Advanced Biblical Hebrew (12 credit units)
- Intermediate reading fluency in German (3 credit units)
- Intermediate reading fluency in French (3 credit units)
- Native Fluency in Korean

Membership

- Member of the Society of Biblical Literature
- Member of the Evangelical Theological Society
- Student Member of The Institute for Biblical Research